Greg Malarney Joins TW Metals as Director of Transportation

Exton, Pennsylvania, November 2, 2004—TW Metals has announced that Greg Malarney has recently joined the company in the position of Director of Transportation.

Malarney brings over twenty years of experience in the transportation and logistics industries to TW Metals. Malarney most recently worked with Jevic Transportation where he served as Director of Linehaul Operations. He has also worked as the Director of Operations for USF Logistics.

TW Metals' COO, Jon Joslow states, "Greg's experiences will help TW Metals improve upon performance, efficiency and cost structures associated with inbound and outbound transportation."

A dynamic and customer-focused organization, TW Metals is a leading specialty metal distributor with over 25 facilities worldwide. The company offers a broad range of products and services, including but not limited to extrusions, fittings, pipe, rod & bar and tubing. TW Metals was formed in 1998 through the merger of Tubesales (founded in 1946) and Williams and Company (founded in 1907). TW Metals is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Superior Group, Inc., a private holding company headquartered in Radnor, PA. For further information, visit www.twmetals.com.
